

K-Love provides me with Christian values and guidance through their music and verses. If K-Love were replaced by another broadcaster I'm positive they would not bring forth the same values. I believe that the service K-Love provides brings the correct moral standards a community needs to survive.